Algorithmic Trading Strategy — Keystone v3

As of May 15, 2026 · $100,000 account · Compounded daily

Strategy Overview

TradeGenius runs two independent strategies in sequence each trading day: a morning Opening Range Breakout (ORB) session and an afternoon EOD Reversal addon. Both strategies operate on a fixed universe of 12 large-cap and ETF tickers, risk-managed per trade, and compound daily on a $100,000 base account.

	Morning ORB	EOD Reversal
Window	9:30 – 11:00 ET	15:00 – 15:58 ET
Entry signal	30-min opening range breakout (long or short)	Mean-reversion rank (ROD3 across 5 tickers)
Exit	2.5R target · ATR stop Partial at 1R → BE runner	Market-on-close at 15:58 ET
Stop	ATR(14) × 1.75 from entry	2% from entry price
Position size	1% risk per trade ≤75% of account notional	35% notional per leg (1 long + 1 short)
Universe	AAPL AMZN AVGO GOOG META MSFT NFLX NVDA ORCL QQQ SPY TSLA	ORCL AAPL MSFT AVGO NFLX (long fence: ORCL AAPL MSFT AVGO) (short fence: ORCL NFLX AAPL MSFT)
Max trades/day	5	2 (1 long + 1 short)
Ann P&L (17mo)	$33,884	$12,620

Risk Controls

Control	Setting	Purpose
Daily loss kill-switch	–2% of account	Halt all new entries if down >$2k on the day
Concurrent risk cap	$2,000 open risk	Never risk more than $2k across all open positions
VWAP-chase gate	≤25 bps from VWAP	Block entries on META/MSFT/AAPL/AMZN/GOOG/AVGO when price has already run far from session VWAP
Sym. post-trade cooldown	10 min after any exit	Block same (ticker, side) re-entry for 10 min after a close — prevents immediate double-fires
VIX gate	Skip if VIX > 22	Avoid entries on high-volatility days
Gap gate	Skip if gap > 1.5%	Avoid gapping tickers that already broke out
Earnings skip	±1 day around earnings	No entries around earnings events

SPY regime gate	Prior day SPY ret > -40 bps	Skip ORB if broad market sold off hard prior day
EOD notional cap	≤95% of account equity	Total long + short market value capped at equity
